COOMBE KEYNES TRUST

The Coombe Keynes Trust is a charity dedicated to the preservation and maintenance of the Church of the Holy Rood for the benefit of the local community.

The local diocese decided to close the church for worship in the 1970s but a small group of villagers formed the Trust to save the building for future generations.

Our events are open to everyone. Please see our website for more information on tickets and times. If you'd like to organise an additional event or help with the ones listed here, please get in touch via the email address below.

The church is also available to hire for commercial or social activities.

If you would like to support the work of the Trust, please consider joining for a small annual fee of £15 per person.
